Property Summary

Step into this Class A office space on one of Mount Pleasant's most sought-after locations. This sublease of Suite 320 at 75 Port City Landing will allow you to get to work immediately, with a sublease term running through December 31, 2027.

The suite is thoughtfully laid out with three private offices, a large conference room and a second smaller conference room, an open bullpen, a break room, and additional storage. Harbor views from the common areas and the building's walking trails, dining, and waterfront setting give clients and employees a great impression.

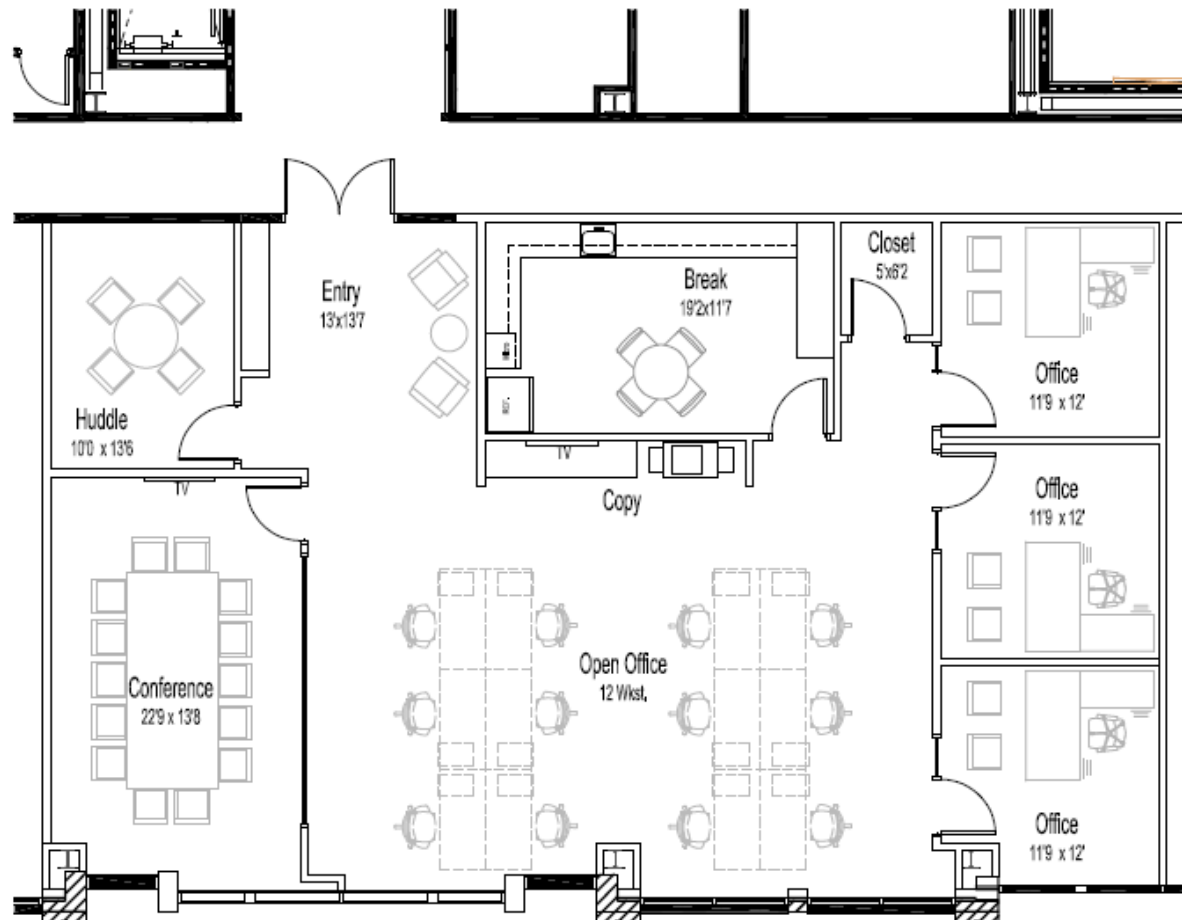

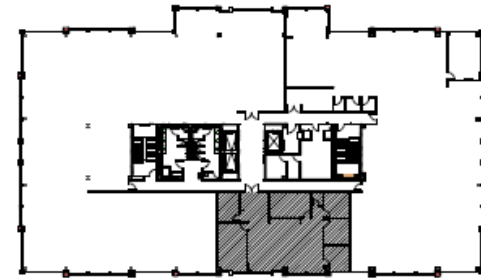

Located minutes from downtown Charleston with immediate access to the Ravenel Bridge, the location pairs a premier address with a shorter commute. For waterfront office presence with the flexibility of a sublease, this is a rare opportunity.
