KŌ'ULA

Our vision for Ward Village has been to create a community that is recognized around the world for its design, walkability, offerings, and distinct sense of place; capturing the essence of what makes Honolulu so special within a vibrant neighborhood. Inspired by nature, Kō'ula is a tangible expression of this philosophy. As the first residential tower located adjacent to Victoria Ward Park, Kō'ula is a thoughtful, modern answer to the question of how people live today, and how they will live tomorrow.
