Property Details

For Sale or Lease | 3100 SC-153

This ±3,520 square foot freestanding restaurant building is in Powdersville, South Carolina just off the highly trafficked I-85 corridor. The unzoned property sits along SC-153 with excellent frontage and visibility, strong daily traffic counts and direct access points that allow convenient ingress and egress. Surrounded by national retailers, dense residential growth and established neighborhoods, the site benefits from a strong customer base and daytime population.

The building features a functional layout for quick service or fast casual dining with existing restaurant infrastructure including hood, grease trap and drive through potential. Ample on site parking supports peak demand and efficient customer flow while a dedicated rear service area accommodates deliveries. Ideal for restaurant or retail users seeking a high exposure location with immediate interstate connectivity and established trade area.
