1049 Market Street

Location:

Anchored by Market Street, Mid-Market has come into its own in the last decade when Twitter took over the stunning San Francisco Furniture Mart on Market Street. Known as a neighborhood where majestic history meets modern technology, the corridor is now home to Dolby Labs and Uber. An emerging district, Mid-Market is peppered with hip eateries, bars, boutiques, and nightlife. Foodies revel in The Hall, an elevated food court, and fresh produce and groceries at The Market on Market, based on the ground level of Twitter.
