INVESTMENT OVERVIEW

Beaver Lake Campground is an established 103-unit RV park on 19.46 acres along US Hwy 16 just west of Custer. Located in the southern Black Hills, the property provides convenient access to downtown Custer and major attractions including Crazy Horse Memorial, Custer State Park and Mount Rushmore National Memorial.

The campground offers RV, tent and cabin accommodations across wooded sites with a strong mix of guest amenities. A heated seasonal pool, recreation areas, laundry facilities and multiple bathhouses serve guests throughout their stay, while on-site retail, propane, and firewood complement the core operation.

The 3,520 SF main building houses the office, store, laundry, guest facilities and a three-bedroom owner/manager apartment. Additional buildings and operational infrastructure are in place throughout the property, including a rec hall, shop, garage, two pump houses, two storage sheds, and a pool equipment room. Campground FF&E is included in the sale, with financial information available to qualified buyers upon signed NDA.
