GROUND FLOOR RETAIL/RESTAURANT SPACE IN LANSING'S PREMIER MIXED-USE DEVELOPMENT

Welcome to The Red Cedar, Lansing's largest and most dynamic mixed-use development, offering up to 7,077 SF of highly visible ground-floor commercial space. Flexible floor plans are available, making it ideal for retail, restaurant, or service users. Select restaurant suites feature kitchen venting, patio seating, and liquor license opportunities.

This high-profile development is anchored by:
University Edge Student Living (800 beds)
Gateway Lofts (180 residential units)
Red Cedar Lodges (130-unit luxury senior living)
AC Marriott & Hyatt Hotels (recently completed)

Surrounded by natural amenities including walking paths, ponds, fountains, and an outdoor amphitheater, the site offers a vibrant environment for businesses and visitors alike. Located on Michigan Avenue, the property enjoys direct access to Michigan State University just to the east, and is conveniently positioned between downtown Lansing and East Lansing—each less than 8 minutes away.

Directly across from Frandor Shopping Center and bordered by the Red Cedar River to the south, this location offers exceptional foot traffic, connectivity, and visibility in one of the region's most exciting destinations.

WHY GREATER LANSING?

Lansing is more famously home to Michigan State University, a premier public research university with over 50,000 students. The 6-Time Football National Champions play at Spartan Stadium, which holds 75,000 fans, and the 2-Time NCAA Basketball Champions play at the Breslin Center, which holds 15,000 fans. MSU is one of the nation's premier land-grant universities, with one of the top agricultural programs in the world. The MSU Pavilion is a 100,000 SF exhibition venue, hosting over 100 events for agriculture and livestock education yearly.
