Notable developments including Caddo Prime and The Pit Stop represent the “retail follows rooftops” approach that developers have modeled after for generations. Additional infrastructure and utilities to the nearby area along with TXDOT’s new alignment of on/off ramps and overall expansion, marks this area of Caddo Mills as prime. The city, which ranks 3rd in per capita population growth in Texas, with neighboring Josephine at 4th, is set to undergo significant changes with the introduction of ±10,000 new homes. These developments are projected to boost the population by an additional 18,850 residents from its current base of ±28,000, largely attracted by the highly reputable Caddo Mills ISD—ranked in the top 30 of public-school districts statewide and as the top district in Hunt County. The city’s ideal positioning between Texas’ major highways, I-30 and Route 66, along with key north-south arteries FM 1565, FM 36, and 1903, which are slated for expansion to 5 lanes, offers unmatched accessibility and mobility.

The anticipation for residential and commercial developments led by reputable builders underscores the burgeoning commercial potential that aligns with community aspirations. Furthermore, the city’s leadership is increasingly optimistic about the incoming residential growth and is now advocating for commercial development to commence, expressing a strong desire to attract some of the country’s top retailers to Caddo Mills. This enthusiasm is backed by proactive initiatives like a $1M Texas Wildlife grant for new park development, the establishment of a medical office, and significant infrastructure enhancements, including the upcoming FM6 loop.

These developments signify Caddo Mills’ strategic positioning as an attractive destination for living and investment, promising a vibrant and prosperous future for its rapidly expanding community. The city’s leadership is keenly focused on balancing residential expansion with commercial development, aiming to create a well-rounded community that caters to the needs and aspirations of its residents, making Caddo Mills a prime example of strategic and holistic urban growth in Texas.

FUTURE LAND USE

Strategically positioned on I-30 between two major arteries, FM 1565 and FM 36, this 130-acre industrial site in Caddo Mills stands at the heart of a major logistics corridor, boasting a daily traffic count of 58,000+ vehicles. With 25% of traffic on I-30 in Hunt County attributable to trucks and commercial vehicles, the site offers an unmatched location for logistics, manufacturing, and distribution operations. This corridor, stretching 366 miles from Fort Worth to Texarkana, highlights the property's potential as a hub for high-volume, efficient supply chain operations.

Significant infrastructure improvements, including the expansion of I-30, are set to enhance connectivity and traffic capacity, directly benefiting this property. With average daily freight traffic along the corridor expected to double by 2040, the site is well-positioned for businesses aiming to capitalize on the growing demand for industrial and logistical space. These developments promise to elevate the property's strategic importance, making it a prime investment for future-focused industrial enterprises.

Investors and developers eyeing a stake in the burgeoning logistics and industrial sector of Caddo Mills will find this 130-acre property an unparalleled opportunity. Its strategic location, coupled with the anticipated increase in freight traffic and the area's commitment to infrastructure and economic growth, positions it as a cornerstone for a thriving industrial development. This site not only offers direct access to key transportation arteries but also aligns with long-term economic expansion trends in the region.

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION: AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD):

The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.
