ECONOMY

Situated at the center of the 7th largest MSA in the United States, the Greater Fort Lauderdale area has a strong and diverse economy as it has access to highly-skilled workers, major international markets, world-class educational opportunities, and a business-friendly government. From aviation and aerospace to global logistics, headquarters, life sciences, manufacturing, marine industries and technology, the area offers a solid infrastructure to support these growing industries and clusters.

Fort Lauderdale is home to nearly 200 regional, national, and international headquarters, making it a global business center. These businesses have access to two foreign trade zones, three international airports, three deep-water seaports, and seven general aviation airports. The city is at the heart of TechGateway, a major tech hub where many technological advancements were first created. Over 6,000 companies are located within the TechGateway including Microsoft, JetSmarter, and Hotwire Communications.

The Greater Fort Lauderdale area is home to 43 higher education institutions that offer Associate's degrees or higher, eleven of which offer Master's degrees. The institutions educate over 350,000 students each year.

With a favorable tax climate for businesses and no personal state income tax, this city is an ideal place for businesses and young professionals to thrive.

Located west of Flagler Village, Thrive Progresso is an 80,000 square feet mixed-use development and social destination began construction in mid-March 2021 and finished late September 2021.

The project features a performing arts center, a retail strip, an office complex, a high-end warehouse, and much more. The development's layout set out the ideal location for socializing as there is lots of natural light, large walkable areas, and a green event space.

TOURISM

GALLERIA FORT LAUDERDALE

Galleria Fort Lauderdale is a world-class shopping center as it features over 120 fabulous stores and sophisticated restaurants. It is anchored by Macy's and Dillard's and features other national retailers such as Apple, Williams-Sonoma, and Free People. Popular dining destinations at the Galleria include The Capital Grille, Seasons 52, and Coopers Hawk Restaurant and Winery.

LAS OLAS BOULEVARD

Las Olas Boulevard is a shopper's paradise as it is home to local fashion boutiques, art galleries, restaurants that serve a variety of cuisines, and many more. Las Olas Boulevard stretches from the beach at A1A and is beautifully lined with palm trees and has magnificent views of million-dollar homes and spectacular yachts.

BEACHES

Fort Lauderdale has miles and miles of breathtaking beaches including Lauderdale-By-The-Sea, Las Olas Beach, and Fort Lauderdale Beach. The Greater Area of Fort Lauderdale features several other beaches that are less than 20 miles from the city including Deerfield Beach, Hillsboro Beach, Pompano Beach, Dania Beach, Hollywood Beach, and Hallandale Beach. The city of Miami, the second-largest city in Florida, and Miami Beach are also just an hour away from the city.

BONNET HOUSE MUSEUM & GARDENS

Located along Fort Lauderdale Beach, Bonnet House Museum & Gardens is a 35-acre pristine estate. Frederic Clay Bartlett, a Chicago-born artist, created Bonnet House in 1920. The estate features Evelyn Bartlett's animal sculpture collection from Southeast Asia and Africa, a variety of orchids, and playful monkeys and beautiful swans that roam the area. The estate offers guided tours of the buildings and gardens to tourists who are interested in learning about how the Bartlett family lived.
