

Executive Summary

Property Overview

Position your business in the heart of Downtown Chicago with this 2,800 SF commercial condominium located on the 16th floor of the iconic Garland Building at 111 N. Wabash Avenue. Built in 1917, this architecturally significant property blends historic character with modern functionality, offering a professional environment ideal for medical, office, or research users.

The space was previously occupied by an optometrist and is well suited for continued medical or healthcare-related use. The flexible floor plan allows for a variety of configurations, whether you are seeking a medical suite, legal office, creative workspace, or financial services operation. The suite benefits from central HVAC, wet sprinkler system, separate electrical meters, and access to central building services.

Offered as a commercial condo, this opportunity provides long-term control of occupancy in one of Chicago's most recognized business corridors. The B-2 zoning supports a wide range of office and commercial uses, making it well suited for owner-users or professional practices seeking a permanent Downtown presence.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

David Piotrowski joined Keller Williams Realty Partners Now Keller Williams ONEChicago in 2018, later that same year joined KW Commercial, a division of Keller Williams Realty Partners. As part of KW Commercial David works with all types of commercial transactions including: acquisition, disposition, leasing and tenant representation. In today's ever-changing investment real estate market, David believes that it is imperative to be flexible and forward-thinking, and to work diligently and intelligently to consistently produce success. David's record demonstrates his ability to succeed and achieve extraordinary results for his clients under the most challenging of market conditions, through every cycle. His steadiness places him in an elite group of investment professionals who achieve optimal results for their clients through relationships with the largest pool of qualified investors available.

David's first foray into investing was helping his parents work on their apartment building which they exchanged into a Motel in Wisconsin. Then at the age of 24, purchased himself an apartment building and worked diligently to increase its value. David saw the worth in what he had done. He decided to educate himself more about real estate investing, and earned his Real Estate License in 2012. Next, he went to work with a national real estate company to help other investors in the multi-family space.

Since then, he has helped in leasing apartments, retail and office space. As well as, helping investors buy and/or sell apartments, office and retail properties in Illinois and Wisconsin. The most important duty for David is making sure investors are getting the most value out of their properties like he did.
